THE AMERICAN SCHOOL OF CLASSICAL STUDIES AT ATHENS

TAKES PLEASURE IN INVITING YOU

TO THE 2008-2009 LECTURE SERIES OF THE SCHOOL
Tuesday, October 14 – Dr. Konstantinos Kissas, Director ΛΖ´ Ephorate of Prehistoric and Classical Antiquities of Corinth: “New Fragments of the Archaic Architecture of the Athenian Acropolis” - “Νέα θραύσματα αρχαϊκής αρχιτεκτονικής της αθηναϊκής Ακρόπολεως”
(the lecture will be in Greek with simultaneous translation into English)
Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.: Director’s Lecture Series

Tuesday, November 4 – Professor Anne J. Gilliland, University of California, Los Angeles: “Digital Records, Digital Documents, and Digital Archives: The Past, the Present and the Future”
Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.: Annual Archives Lecture

Tuesday, November 18 - Professor Peter van Minnen, University of Cincinnati: “Alexandria in the Age of Augustus: The View from Cleopatra's Palace (via Green Mummifiers)”
Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.: Director’s Lecture Series

Tuesday, November 25 – Dr. Diana Wright, “Ottoman-Venetian Cooperation in Post-War Greece (15th c. A.D.)”
Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.: Director’s Lecture Series and Cotsen Fund Lecture Series

Tuesday, December 2 – Professor Dimitri Gutas, Yale University: “The Arabic Background of Western Philosophy and Science”
Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.: Cotsen Fund Lecture Series

Tuesday, December 9 – MALCOLM H. WIENER LECTURE – Professor Martin K. Jones, University of Cambridge: “The Meal and the Feast: New Directions in the Archaeology of Sharing Food”
Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.: Director’s Lecture Series and Wiener Laboratory Lecture

Tuesday, January 20 - TRUSTEES LECTURE - Professor Susan Alcock, Brown University: “A River Runs Through It: The Vorotan Project, Southern Armenia”
Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.

Tuesday, January 27 - Ms. Bet McLeod, Curator, Department of Prehistory and Europe, British Museum; Dr. Eugenia Gerousi, Director of the 23rd Ephorate of Byzantine Antiquities; and Dr. Maria Georgopoulou, Director, the Gennadius Library: “A Medieval Jewelry Treasure from Halkis in Context”
Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.: Cotsen Fund Lecture Series

Tuesday, February 3 – Professor Jenifer Neils, Case Western Reserve University: “The Parthenon Sculptures and Periklean Policies”
Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.: Director’s Lecture Series
Wednesday, February 18 – An evening honoring novelist and playwright Angelos Terzakis

Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.: Cotsen Fund Lecture Series

Tuesday, February 24 - Professor Harriet Blitzer, Buffalo State College: “The Archaeology of Agriculture, Industry and Trade in the Late Ottoman Aegean”

Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.: Director's Lecture Series

Friday, March 13 - OPEN MEETING ON THE WORK OF THE SCHOOL IN 2008 and LECTURE by Dr. Thomas Brogan, Director of INSTAP Study Center in East Crete: “Survey of American Prehistoric Research in East Crete: The American Excavations in East Crete”

(Repeated in Thessaloniki on March 19 at the Aristotle University)

Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.

Tuesday, March 31 - TWENTY EIGHTH ANNUAL WALTON LECTURE OF THE GENNADIUS LIBRARY - Professor Paul Magdalino, University of St Andrews: "Byzantium as the New Israel"

Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.

Tuesday, April 28 - Professor Rebecca Ammerman, Colgate University: “In Pursuit of Pan across the Mediterranean”

Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.: Director’s Lecture Series

Tuesday, May 19 - Professor John Papadopoulos, University of California, Los Angeles: “Greece and its Northern Neighbors from the Bronze Age to the Iron Age: Molossis, Illyria and Corinthians”

Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.: Director’s Lecture Series

Tuesday, May 26 - Professor Katerina Harvati, Max Planck Institute: “Out of Africa and into Eurasia: An Eastern Mediterranean Perspective”

Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.: Director's Lecture Series and Wiener Laboratory Lecture

Tuesday, June 2 – Professor Eleni Bastea, University of New Mexico: “Athens 1896. Karaghiozis and the Olympic Games” – “Αθήνα 1896. Ο Καραγκιόζης και οι Ολυμπιακοί αγώνες”

(the lecture will be in Greek/summary in English will be provided)

Cotsen Hall, 7 p.m.: Cotsen Fund Lecture Series

The Cotsen Fund Lecture Series is presented by the Gennadius Library of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens