at all justify the conscience relive upon us. I employed all my eloquence in order to convince myself that my discontenting establishment were operating with all possible care and attention on the behalf of those who trusted their interest to our care and succed. I at least in prevailing upon them to act with justice to my affirmances.

On the 1st October
I made the requisite
preparations for my departure. Having in mind that on the day after our departure, all the
hinges of small and the most of the

be half at a much less take than in Bogor.
not wishing to account
myself of the advantage in favor of my purse, I provided
myself only with a
small quantity of
clothes, leaving my other goods here for a later opportunity.
The goods which I thought significant for my travel, I left
at a friends, leaving brownika the
