BULLETIN

ADVANCED FELLOWSHIPS 2012-2013

Several fellowships for the full academic year at the School are available to students who have completed the Regular Program or one year as a Student Associate Member and plan to return to the School to pursue independent research, usually for their Ph.D. dissertation. Please note that some fellowships are designated for specific areas of research. Regular Members and Student Associate Members who wish to stay another year in Athens are encouraged to apply for the following fellowships:

The Samuel H. Kress Fellowship in art and architecture of antiquity

The Gorham Phillips Stevens Fellowship in the history of architecture

The Ione Mylonas Shear Fellowship in Mycenaean archaeology or Athenian architecture and/or archaeology

The Homer A. and Dorothy B. Thompson Fellowship in the study of pottery

The Edward Capps Fellowship, the Doreen Canaday Spitzer Fellowship, and the Eugene Vanderpool Fellowship (unrestricted in area of research)

Those Eligible: Advanced graduate students in classical studies, ancient Mediterranean studies, post-classical Greek studies, or related fields who have a specific project that requires extended residence in Greece.

Terms: Cash stipend of $11,500 plus room, board and waiver of School fees. A final report is due at the end of the award period, and the ASCSA expects that copies of all publications that result from research conducted as a Fellow of the ASCSA be contributed to the Blegen Library of the School.

Application: Submit application for Associate Membership with Fellowship online at (<http://www.ascsa.edu.gr/index.php/admission-membership/>) and include the following:

- 1) An up-to-date curriculum vitae;
 - 2) A project statement of no more than three single-spaced pages in length;
 - 3) A list of other fellowships, if any, applied for with dates of notification of these awards;
 - 4) A letter of reference from your dissertation advisor on the feasibility of your work.
- Applicants who are not at the School for the academic year 2011-2012 should also get a second letter of reference from a scholar who can evaluate what they have done since leaving the School.
