

WARFARE & CULTURE IN ANCIENT GREEECE JUNE 11 TO JUNE 29, 2018

Taught by Professors Georgia Tsouvala, Illinois State University, and Lee L. Brice, Western Illinois University, author of Greek Warfare from Marathon to the Conquests of Alexander the Great. The Seminar will investigate the intersections between ancient warfare and culture while visiting archaeological sites, battlefields, and museum collections. Through these visits and discussions, the seminar will provide participants with a unique and useful grounding in Greek history.

ANCIENT GREEK RELIGION IN SITU JULY 5 TO JULY 23, 2018

Taught by Professor Irene Polinskaya, King's College London, author of A Local History of Greek Polytheism: Gods, People, and the Land of Aigina, 800–400 BCE. This seminar will take students to the sites of ancient worship — from caves to coasts, from peaks to pastures, from city acropoleis to deep countryside — to explore the remains of architecture and objects found there and link them to our textual sources. The seminar examines religious sites as nodes in the network of social interactions, products of geocological, political, and historical development.

The ASCSA presents Summer Seminars for graduate and undergraduate students and secondary school and college teachers. $2,750 fee per seminar includes tuition, travel within Greece, room, and partial board.

ONLINE APPLICATION DEADLINE, JANUARY 15, 2018.

Learn more at www.ascsa.edu.gr/index.php/programs/ss-scholarships