PREFACE

The Annual Reports of the Managing Committee of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens have been published as follows:

Reports 1 (1881-1882) -15 (1895-1896) were published by the Managing Committee of the School. (The first, second, and third annual reports were reprinted in 1886 and published in one pamphlet.)

Reports 16 (1896-1897) -27 (1907-1908) were printed in the American Journal of Archaeology, 2nd series, Vols. I-XII; usually, but not always, as part of a supplement.

Reports 28 (1908-1909) -47 (1927-1928) were printed in the Bulletins of the Archaeological Institute of America, Vols. I-XIX (Vol. II contains no report).

In 1928 the Institute ceased to publish these Bulletins and for eleven years, 1928-1938, there were no published reports of the Managing Committee. The Executive Committee of the Managing Committee felt that it would be desirable to remedy this situation by publishing extracts from the Minutes of the Annual Meetings of the Managing Committee for this period. Such a publication was accordingly authorized at a meeting at Hartford, Connecticut, December 31, 1941.

Fortunately, the minutes of these annual meetings have been most carefully kept by the Secretaries, Professors Perry and Van Hook. They contain full summaries of the Chairman's Reports and complete reports of the Publication and Fellowship Committees.

The reports of the excavation of the Athenian Agora by the Director, T. Leslie Shear are published in Hesperia as follows:

First campaign, 1931, Vol. II, Pa. 96-109.

Second campaign, 1932, Vol. II, Pa. 451-474.

Third campaign, 1933, Vol. IV, Pa. 311-339.

Fourth campaign, 1934, Vol. IV, Pa. 340-370.

Fifth campaign, 1935, Vol. V, Pa. 1-42.

Sixth campaign, 1936, Vol. VI, Pa. 333-381.

The present publication covers Reports 48 (1928-1929) -58 (1938-1939), issued for convenience in three volumes.

Reports 59 (1939-1940) and 60 (1940-1941) are published by the Managing Committee of the School.

THE FIFTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE AMERICAN SCHOOL OF CLASSICAL STUDIES AT ATHENS, 1932-1933

The Annual Meeting was held May 13, 1933

REPORT OF THE CHAIRMAN

Professor Edward Capps

The Chairman referred to the presence of Professor Rhys Carpenter, who had returned to America during the summer of 1932, after five years' absence in Greece as Director of the School, and expressed the hope that Professor Carpenter would find an opportunity to talk very freely to the Committee about his impressions of the School and its problems and progress. He also referred to the presence of Professor Bassett, who had served as Visiting Professor in 1931-1932, and would report upon conditions as he found them.

The Chair then called upon the Assistant Secretary, Professor Van Hook, to read the annual letter of the present Director, Dr. Stillwell. A summary of the letter follows:

The Director begins by thanking his predecessor, Professor Carpenter, for the great help given him, both directly and indirectly, in the arduous task of becoming familiar with the complicated business of administration, and likewise by expressing his indebtedness to Professors Meritt and Broneer. He strongly advises the plan of having a new Director serve an apprenticeship of at least a year as Assistant Director; and he stresses the importance of a better acquaintance with modern languages, particularly German, on the part of the incoming students, and of a more thorough preliminary training than most of them have.

Loring Hall offers a somewhat puzzling problem, as a considerable number of students and other residents, potential as well as actual, seem to prefer living elsewhere, on account of both lower rents and greater personal freedom to be had outside.

Dr. Thompson has gained additional interesting results from his excavations on the Pnyx; Dr. Dow has been very busy with his epigraphical work, and has made some interesting discoveries concerning some of the later archons. Mr. Parsons and Miss Freeman have been at work in Corinth; the former has opened up a fine Dipylon gate in the east wall leading from the town to Lechaum. Miss Shoe is making excellent progress in her important book on Greek Profiles. Dr. Broneer has continued his excavations on the North slope of the Acropolis, with interesting discoveries—architectural, ceramic, and epigraphic.

Two open meetings were scheduled for the season. The first was held as planned, and brought a lecture by Dr. Shear on the Agora "dig" of 1932; the second was to be held a few days after the writing of Dr. Stillwell's letter, and to comprise a talk by Dr. Kourouniotis on his excavations at Eleusis, and one by Dr. Broneer on his work mentioned above.

Miss Edwards, arriving at Athens in December, has undertaken the cataloguing of the coins found at Corinth since 1929.

At Corinth much has been done in the installation of the new Museum. Practically all the objects that are to be exhibited at present are now on view. Miss Pease has made complete and detailed lists of all the material on exhibition except that which has not yet been published. The labels, however, are still to be made. The amount of material now on hand is very large. The court has been arranged and planting has been begun.

"Temple E" is now completely excavated. Much interesting archaeological material was found in the process.

The main excavations, under Dr. Broneer, assisted by Miss Davidson, Fellow of the School, yielded important results, in particular revealing a much larger development of the South Stoa than had been suspected.

The perennial problem of the water-supply seems to be settled, at least for the present.

After a few supplementary remarks concerning the School and its operations in Greece, in which expression was given to the invaluable services of Director Carpenter in every department of the School's work, the Chairman reported on the condition of the Corinth Museum, and of the plans to dedicate it in the spring of 1934 if Mrs. William H. Moore should find it possible to be present. He also spoke of the skillful reconstruction of the Oakley House by Director Stillwell, and the progress of the plan to build a museum of antiquities for the island of Lesbos with funds furnished largely by the Rockefeller Foundation.

The Chairman then, in preparation for the presentation of the Budget for 1933-1934, gave a full statement of the general condition of the School's investments and the income received from the Endowment Funds. He explained that the Trustees, who usually determine in December the amount which will be placed at the disposal of the Managing Committee for the following academic year, had purposely refrained from doing so this year because of the uncertainty of the financial and monetary situation. Furthermore, the Treasurer was absent in Europe from February to April, the period when the Director and the Chairman must perfect the details of the Budget. On the return of the Treasurer, notice was given by him that the Budget of the School must be radically curtailed in comparison with that of the current year, inasmuch as a conservative estimate of income indicated that the Trustees could be absolutely certain of only about $37,000. The Chairman then attended a special meeting of the Trustees in Boston, called to consider the problem of the Budget. It was finally agreed, on the basis of a detailed reconsideration of the status of the investments, to allow the Managing Committee about $45,000. The Chairman was careful to explain, however, that there is no alarming shrinkage in income from investments but that the Trustees regarded it as quite necessary, in the present uncertainty as to the future, to take the income of the present year as the basis, and to eliminate as far as possible all elements of uncertainty so that the School should not run in debt during the coming year. In order to reassure the Managing Committee, he quoted the opinion of Mr. Peabody, President of the Trustees, to the effect that the investments of the School are in excellent condition considering the times and in comparison with other trust funds of a similar nature, and that with the return of normal prosperity the School's income should also be restored in large measure to its former normal amount.

The Chairman also reported to the Committee in detail the status of the various Fellowship, Library and Excavation funds which for a number of years have been treated as accumulating funds, receiving each year an allowance of interest to be added to the principal. By this policy these small funds are being slowly built up to an amount that will eventually yield an income of worth-while proportions for the support of Fellowships. Library and School excavations. He announced that by July 1, 1933, the principal of the Thomas Day Seymour Fund will have reached $25,000, so that the first Seymour Fellow in History and Literature might safely be appointed, thus releasing to the Treasurer's Income Account the amount of the stipend, at present $1,200.

The Secretary reported briefly that since the last Annual Meeting the Committee had lost by death the following members: Professors Lofberg and Randolph.

The report of the Third Campaign (1933) of the Excavation of the Athenian Agora by the Director, T. Leslie Shear is printed in Hesperia, Vol. IV, Pa. 311-339.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee reported as follows:

A. Action taken since the Annual Meeting of May, 1932

Voted:

1. That the sum of $2,500, being the amount of a special grant made by the American Council of Learned Societies for the purpose of assisting in the excavation at Corinth, be added to the appropriation of $5,000 made for those excavations in the Budget passed in May, 1932, thus making the total appropriation $7,500.

2. That the appropriation of $2,000 as a book fund for the Gennadeus Library be increased by $2,000 in order to enable the Librarian to take advantage of an unusual opportunity for the acquisition of a valuable collection of Byzantine books and pamphlets from a private library in Europe, it being understood that the Treasurer shall be reimbursed in whole or in part for this expenditure out of the appropriation to be made for year 1933-1934.

3. That an addition of $500 be made to the appropriation for the current year for the completion of the installation of antiquities in the new Museum at Corinth.

4. That the names of Morton B. Enslin and Ivan M. Linforth be added to the list of those from whom the Chairman may select the Annual and Visiting Professors.

5. That Professor Ivan M. Linforth be recommended to the Managing Committee for election as a member of that Committee representing the University of California.

6. That the Publication Committee be authorized to proceed with the publication in the Corinth Series of Professor Carpenter's book on the walls and fortifications of Acrocorinth and the city of Corinth, at a cost, chargeable to the Publication Fund, of $2,500 to $3,000.

7. That approval be given to the Publication Committee's project of publishing in the Corinth Series a volume by Agnes Newhall Stillwell on the Kerameikos of Corinth, subject to the Committee's approval of the MS. when submitted. It is understood that the cost of the volume, roughly estimated, will be about $2,500. The Executive Committee, however, in approving the project, cannot at this time authorize the expenditure of any specified amount on the volume, in view of the low state of the Publication Fund, but requests the Publication Committee to submit later an accurate estimate of the cost, in order that steps may be taken then to provide the necessary funds.

8. That Mr. Richard P. Breaden be reappointed to an Assistantship in the Gennadeus Library for the year 1933-1934, at a salary of $1,200.

On motion, the foregoing actions and recommendations of the Executive Committee were approved.

Action taken at the meeting of May 12, 1933

Voted to recommend to the Managing Committee:

1. That the resignation of Professor Wilmer Cave Wright of Bryn Mawr College from the Managing Committee be accepted with regret.

2. That the resignation of Professor William Kelly Prentice of Princeton University from the Managing Committee be accepted with regret.

3. That Professor George W. Elderkin be elected to membership on the Managing Committee as a representative of Princeton University.

4. That Professor Edward Capps, Jr., be elected to membership on the Managing Committee as representative of Oberlin College.

5. That Professor B. D. Meritt of the University of Michigan and Professor R. H. Webb of the University of Virginia be elected as members of the Executive Committee for a term of three years, to succeed Professors Oldfather and Jones, whose terms have expired.

6. That Professor Bassett (as Chairman), and Professors C. A. Robinson, Jr., and B. D. Meritt be elected as the members of the Committee on Fellowships.

(NOTE: Professor A. B. West served as a member of this Committee for the year 1932-1933, while Professor Meritt was in Athens.)

7. That the present members of the Committee on Publication (Professor G. H. Chase, Chairman, D. M. Robinson, M. H. Swindler, with Professor H. N. Fowler, ex officio as Editor of the Corinth publications) be re-elected.

8. That the present members of the Committee on Personnel (Professors Gulick, Chairman, Crosby and Carpenter) be re-elected.

9. That Professor Chase be re-elected, as representative of the School, as Associate Editor of the Journal of the Archaeological Institute of America.

10. That a special fellowship in Language, Literature, and History be authorized for 1933-1934, in case the necessary funds can be provided; that the Committee on Fellowships be empowered to make the appointment to the fellowship thus established; and that Miss Winifred L. Ruter be appointed thereto.

(NOTE: In connection with this recommendation, it was the sense of the Committee that in case this special fellowship should become financially feasible, Mr. Sidney Henry Gould, already appointed by the Committee on Fellowships to the regular Fellowship in Language, Literature and History, should be designated as the first Thomas Day Seymour Fellow.)

On motion the foregoing recommendations of the Executive Committee were approved.

The Chairman at this point announced that the following persons would serve as Professors at the School for 1933-1934: Professor Means, as Annual Professor and Professor Morgan as Visiting Professor. For succeeding years the possibilities are: 1934-1935, Professors Pepler and Enslin; for 1935-1936, Professors Shero and Linforth; for later years, Professors Scott, Deferrari, Webb and Flickinger.

THE BUDGET FOR 1933-1934

In presenting the Budget the Chairman spoke of the necessity of reducing the Budget for next year, in view of the generally uncertain financial conditions.

Considerable discussion on various points of the Budget followed.

Professor L. E. Lord moved

That the Executive Committee be given power to appoint Miss Pease to an Assistantship in Archaeology on one-half time, at a compensation of $700, in case funds are made available by the retirement of Dr. Thompson. Adopted.

It was pointed out by Professor Carpenter that even though Dr. De Waele retires this year remuneration must be found for his services for the period following July 1, 1933, for which he was engaged.

In view of the fact that some minor modifications of the Budget figures as presented might be found necessary, it was moved that the Chairman be empowered to make such modifications after consultation with the Chairman of the Board of Trustees and the Treasurer of the School. Adopted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION
PROFESSOR GEORGE H. CHASE, Chairman

To the Managing Committee:

Since the last report of the Committee on Publication the following papers of the School have been published in the American Journal of Archaeology:

In Volume XXXVI, 1932:

David M. Robinson, "The Residential Districts and the Cemeteries at Olynthus," pages 118-138;

Dorothy K. Hill, "Boundary Stones from the Piraeus," pages 254-259;

Oscar Broneer, "Some Greek Inscriptions of Roman Date from Attica," pages 393-400;

Benjamin D. Meritt, "Fragments of Attic Building Accounts," pages 472-476.

The sales of publications of the School have been as follows: (the figures represent a report from the Harvard University Press for the sales for the year ending April 30, 1933. They include an accounting from Harrassowitz. No report of sales in Athens has been received).

The Argive Heraeum	1
The Athenian Calendar	7
Corinth, Volume I	33
Corinth, Volume III, 1 (Acrocorinth)	15
Corinth, Volume IV, 1 (Architectural Terracottas)	13
Corinth, Volume IV, 2 (Terracotta Lamps)	19
Corinth, Volume V (The Roman Villa)	15
Corinth, Volume VIII, 1 (Greek Inscriptions)	52
Corinth, Volume VIII, 2 (Latin Inscriptions)	47
Corinth, Volume IX (Greek Sculpture)	18
Corinth, Volume X (The Odeum)	57

The Erechtheum	8
Explorations in Mochlos	5
Guide to Corinth	4
Korakou	1
Sculpture of the Nike Temple Parapet	24
Selected Bindings	2
Zygouries	4
Byzantine Mosaics	30
Archons of Athens	52

In this list the volumes which have appeared during the year are: Corinth, Vol. VIII, 1 (Greek Inscriptions); Volume VIII, 2 (Latin Inscriptions); and Volume X (The Odeum). Volume VI (The Coins), by Professor Edwards, has just been completed and will be put on sale immediately. I am also glad to report that the fifth volume on the Excavations of Olynthus, devoted to mosaics, vases, and lamps, and also the sixth volume, "The Coins found in 1931," have recently been published by Professor Robinson. Since these represent work carried on with the cooperation of the School, it seems proper to mention the publication in this report. During the year, the Committee voted to reduce the price of Volume III, Part I (The Acrocorinth) to $3.00 from $5.00 and the price of the "Erechtheum" from $40.00 to $25.00. The good effect of these reductions seems to appear in the sale of eight copies of the "Erechtheum" during the past year compared with the sale of only two copies in the preceding year. Professor Fowler reports considerable progress in the volume devoted to the vases, which is being written by Mrs. Kosmopoulos, and on the preparation of the final description of Peirene.

The first part of Hesperia, Volume 2, devoted to a study of the east pediment by Professor Carpenter, has recently been printed and distributed, and a second part of this volume, devoted to the excavations of the Agora, is ready for the printer. The journal has met with a very warm welcome and has been favorably reviewed and the members of the Committee feel that it will rapidly become better known and win a permanent place among archaeological periodicals. The present subscription list of 234 represents a good beginning, but many more subscribers are necessary if the periodical is to become self-supporting.

The Committee has no formal recommendation to make. With the publications of the past year the Publication Fund has been reduced to something over eight thousand dollars. Miss Edward's volume on the Coins of Corinth is still to be paid for, and the Members of the Committee feel that they must go slowly in the matter of accepting books until the financial situation is somewhat clearer. Professor Dinsmoor has nearly completed his monograph on Bassae, the Temple of Apollo Epicurius near Phigalia, and has asked that a tentative sum for its publication be set aside in the Budget for 1933-1934. The members of the Committee feel unwilling to commit themselves to the publication of any volume until they can have an exact estimate, and feel that this is sane procedure, since the Executive Committee has power to authorize publication if conditions permit.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FELLOWSHIPS

PROFESSOR S. E. BASSETT, Chairman

The following report was presented by the Chairman of the Committee, Professor Bassett:

To the Chairman of the Managing Committee:

During the past year the interest in the Fellowships has continued to increase. Letters of inquiry have been received from thirty-four students of archaeology or Greek, a larger number than ever before. Of these, fourteen made formal application and were accepted as candidates, and eleven took the examinations, three in archaeology and eight in Greek language, literature and history. The following appointments have been made:

Fellow of the School (in Archaeology), Miss Marian Walker of New York City, B.A., cum laude, Mt. Holyoke, 1927; M.A. Columbia University, 1930; student at the School, 1931-1932. Miss Walker is a graduate student at Johns Hopkins University.

Fellow in the Language, Literature, and History of Ancient Greece, Mr. Henry Sydney Gould, of Paris, Ontario, B.A. (with the gold medal in classics), University of Toronto, 1929; Kellogg Fellow of Yale University, 1931-1933. Mr. Gould expects to take his Ph.D. at Yale at the coming Commencement.

No Fellow of the Institute was appointed. The Institute, because of its financial condition, will be unable to contribute towards the stipend of this Fellowship for the coming year.

The competition for the Fellowship in the Language, Literature, and History of Ancient Greece was marked by unusual brilliance and ability. A number of the readers of the papers commented on the excellence of scholarship shown by four of the eight candidates. The Committee was very desirous that the candidate who ranked second, and was in other ways well qualified, should be appointed Special Fellow, but funds were not available.

The appointment of Mr. Gould, a Canadian citizen holding no degree from an institution in the United States, suggests an explanation of the Committee's interpretation of the eligibility rule. Technically Mr. Gould was ineligible, for in our printed requirements it is stated that the Fellowships are offered to "graduates of colleges and universities in the United States." The Committee has interpreted this to mean "graduates or candidates for a degree in the United States." We have previously accepted as candidates several students who, like Mr. Gould, hold no degree from an institution in the United States. One (Homer A. Thompson, B.A. and M.A., University of British Columbia, graduate student at the University of Michigan) withdrew from the competition to accept an Agora Fellowship; another (J. Walter Graham, B.A. and M.A., Acadia University, graduate student at Johns Hopkins University) was appointed Fellow of the School. Last year Professor Meritt, Acting Chairman, very carefully considered the question of eligibility with reference to a graduate of a Canadian university, who was a first-year graduate student of a college in this country (Miss Winifred F. Hughes, B.A., University of Toronto, graduate student at Smith College). This student was declared ineligible. Furthermore, Canadians under the same conditions have been accepted as students at the School, and this acceptance should qualify them to be candidates for the fellowships. Perhaps our printed requirements need revision, so as to make this point clear. At least we think the Managing Committee should understand our attitude.

During the past year the Committee has again paid some attention to the question whether the present method of selecting Fellows, largely on the basis of a competitive examination, is the best. At the suggestion of Professor Capps, a list of the Fellows for the past ten years was made, in order to see how far our method has been successful. The result indicated the high quality of the Fellows selected by the present method. The list follows: F. P. Johnson, P. H. Davis, Hazel D. Hansen, Dorothy Burr, Natalie Gifford, John Day, Oscar Broneer, A. P. Bellinger, Barbara P. McCarthy, A. C. Schlesinger, Eunice B. (Stebbins) Couch, Jotham Johnson, Sherman LeRoy Wallace, Agnes E. Newhall, Mary Z. Pease, Marian Guptill, Henry Ess Askew, J. Walter Graham, Dorothy K. Hill, Israel Walker, Sara H. Freeman, Mitchell Levensohn, Gladys Davidson, Edward Fluck, Rev. Basil C. Kolar.

In concluding this report the Committee wishes to record its appreciation of the assistance rendered in setting and reading the examination papers by the following persons: F. C. Babbitt, Rhys Carpenter, P. H. Davis, John Day, W. B. Dinsmoor, A. D. Fraser, J. P. Harland, Leicester Holland, C. J. Kraemer, S. B. Luce, Hilman Parry, L. P. Shero, A. C. Schlesinger, LaRue Van Hook, Mrs. W. C. Wright, and C. H. Young.

Also for assistance in conducting the Fellowship Examinations the thanks of the Committee are expressed to the following: Miss M. B. Alexander, Professors Walter Peterson, Moses Hadas, James Hutton, C. B. Welles, M. B. Ogle, Messrs. J. W. Graham, F. L. Smith, J. H. McLean.

Following the report, there was some discussion of Professor Bassett's suggestion that the appointment of Mr. Gould, a Canadian citizen holding no degree from an institution in the United States, might make advisable a revision of the requirements concerning qualifications for membership in the School and for the holding of Fellowships.

It was moved by Professor D. M. Robinson

That the wording of our regulations bearing upon this matter be brought into conformity with our present practice of admitting Canadians as students and fellows. Adopted.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE AUXILIARY FUND

Professor L. E. Lord, Chairman of the Directors of the Fund, made a tentative oral report, to be followed later by a more detailed statement when fuller figures are available. Amount collected to May 13: $2,580; probable for year, $3,200-3,300.

The Chairman of the Managing Committee announced that four new Directors were still to be named by him, and that names of the persons so appointed would be subsequently reported.
