

Wiener Laboratory Workshop Plants in Archaeology

Loring Hall
Monday, 3rd December

Program

10:00-10:10 James Wright (Director of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens)

Welcome

10:10-10:20 Sherry Fox (Director of the Wiener Laboratory, ASCSA)

Introduction to the speakers

10:20-11:20 Alain Touwaide (Smithsonian Institution)

Plants, people, books. Problems and prospects

11:20-11:40 Chryssa Bourbou (28th Ephorate of Byzantine Antiquities)

Nature's pharmacy: The "sarantavotano" of Crete

11:40-12:00 Evi Margaritis (Wiener Laboratory, ASCSA)

Excavating plants: domestic, ritual and medicinal uses

12:00-12:20 Georgia Tsartsidou (Ephorate of Palaeoanthropology & Speleology of Southern Greece, Wiener Laboratory, ASCSA)

Beyond texts and files. Evidence of plant use through phytolith analysis

12:20-12:50 Discussion

13: 45 Departure for a visit to the Mediterranean Garden Society at Peania

<http://www.mediterraneangardensociety.org/>. Board bus in front of the Gennadius Library (please sign up by Thursday 29th November using assist.wienerlab@ascsa.edu.gr)

Gennadius Library
Tuesday, 4th December

15:00 -16:00 Alain Touwaide (Smithsonian Institution)

The manuscripts at the Gennadius Library (Please note that the number of participants is restricted to 15. To sign up use assist.wienerlab@ascsa.edu.gr)