ADVANCED FELLOWSHIPS Deadline: February 15, 2018

Several fellowships for the full academic year at the School are available to students who plan to stay on or return to the School to pursue independent research, usually for their Ph.D. dissertation. Please note that some fellowships are designated for specific areas of research. Regular Members and Student Associate Members who wish to stay another year in Athens are encouraged to apply for the following fellowships:

The Samuel H. Kress Fellowship in art and architecture of antiquity

The Gorham Phillips Stevens Fellowship in the history of architecture

The Ione Mylonas Shear Fellowship in Mycenaean archaeology or Athenian architecture and/or archaeology

The Homer A. and Dorothy B. Thompson Fellowship in the study of pottery

The Edward Capps Fellowship, the Doreen Canaday Spitzer Fellowship, and the Eugene Vanderpool Fellowship (unrestricted in area of research)

Eligibility: Advanced graduate students in classical studies, ancient Mediterranean studies, post-classical Greek studies, or related fields who have a specific project that requires extended residence in Greece. Applicants must have completed the Regular Program or one year as a Student Associate Member.

Terms: Stipend of $11,500 plus room, board and waiver of fees. A final report is due at the end of the award period, and the ASCSA expects that copies of all publications that result from research conducted as a Fellow of the ASCSA be contributed to the relevant library of the School. Please note that for the 2018-2019 academic year, the Blegen and Gennadius libraries may be closed for up to six months between January and June for reorganization; members of the School will continue to have access to other facilities of the School and other libraries in Athens. Students will be required to give a public presentation of their current research.

Application: Submit application for "Associate Membership with Fellowship Application" online. For more information about the application, visit: <http://www.ascsa.edu.gr/index.php/admission-membership/Graduate-and-Post-Doctoral>. The application will include the following:

- 1) An up-to-date curriculum vitae;
- 2) A project statement of no more than three single-spaced pages in length;
- 3) A list of other fellowships, if any, applied for with dates of notification of these awards;
- 4) A letter of reference from your dissertation advisor on the feasibility of your work. Applicants who are not at the School during the current academic year should also obtain a second letter of reference, in addition to the advisor's letter, from a scholar who can evaluate your academic progress since leaving the School.
